

come CLOSER to the Battle of Bennington

Saturday
June 7, 2014

11am - Fort Miller
2pm - Bennington Battlefield

$25 fee for the bus tour and lunch. Please respond before 5/16/14

No charge for opening and closing ceremonies.

Join the Washington County Historical Society, Lakes to Locks Passage, New York State Parks, the Historic Hudson-Hoosic Partnership and partners to celebrate the inauguration of the Road to the Battle of Bennington interpretive driving tour. The event begins with an inaugural celebration being held at the Canal Corp Parking Area near Champlain Canal Lock 6 on the east-side of US Route 4 in the Town of Fort Edward at 11AM. Either join the bus tour, or ride in your own vehicle, along the interpretive route to Bennington Battlefield State Historic Site. At the Battlefield there will be lunch, and guided tours by costumed interpreters. Discover the ill-fated story of Lieutenant Colonel Friedrich Baum and the oft-forgotten story of the Battle of Bennington.

Support provided by the Washington County Historical Society, Lakes to Locks Passage, New York State Parks, the Historic Hudson-Hoosick Rivers Partnership, Saratoga National Historical Park, New York Canal Corporation, Rensselaer County Historical Society, Rensselaer Land Trust, Washington County, Rensselaer County and the Town and Village of Hoosick (Falls).

Please detach and return to the Washington County Historical Society, C/O Kay Tomasi P.O. Box 573 Salem, NY 12865
